

Apprenticeship Resources from the NCRTM

The National Clearinghouse of Rehabilitation Training Materials (NCRTM) is your go-to resource for vocational rehabilitation information, technical assistance and training. The NCRTM is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA).

These resources feature resources recommended by two RSA-funded technical assistance centers: The Job-Driven Vocational Rehabilitation TA Center (JD-VRTAC) and the Workforce Innovation TA Center (WINTAC).

You can find these apprenticeship resources in the NCRTM.

About NCRTM

The National Clearinghouse of Rehabilitation Training Materials (NCRTM) – ncrtm.ed.gov – is RSA's gateway to technical assistance and training providing up-to-date reliable training materials. It is a venue for information sharing, learning, and professional growth for vocational rehabilitation (VR) professionals, service providers, researchers, trainers, educators, individuals with disabilities and their support networks. These activities support RSA's leadership role within the rehabilitation community to facilitate gains in competitive integrated employment for people with disabilities.
